LOCAL NEWS.

There are several new cottages being built on the plains.

Carpenters are engaged making improvements at the Insane Asylum.

Yesterday passed, as far as we know, without a runaway. What's the matter now?

A party of picnickers passed through Nuuanu Valley on their way home last evening about 6 o'clock.

A neat new cottage is being built on Nuuanu street, next to the International Tract Society's building.

The boat which carried the invited guests to the S. Tellie yesterday afternoon was towed by the ship's steam launch.

The appeal of Prince Albert Kunikake, in the matter of Queen Emma's will, occupied the Supreme Court yesterday.

A hand elevator which came by the barkentine Mariposa will be put in position in the Chinese Club House on King street.

The steamer Mariposa is due to day and will doubtless arrive in port shortly before noon as usual. She will bring news up to the first instant.

Some of the natives residents in the vicinity of the new Chinese club house on Beretania street are complaining of the poi makers in the neighborhood.

Yesterday evening about seven o'clock a fire occurred in a Chinese store on Emma street, but was put out by the inmates without turning in an alarm.

Two natives had a dispute on King street near the Government Building yesterday which was settled by loud talk and a few blows in half earnest—both were afraid to fight.

The new schooner Domitila which lately arrived here from the Coast, left yesterday for her first trip to ports on the Koolau coast. She is commanded by the owner, Mr. J. Paiko.

All the finishing material for both the new Station House on Merchant street and the Chinese Club House on King street arrived last week and both buildings are now being finished.

An informal reception was given yesterday afternoon by the captain and officers of H. B. M. S. S. Tellie. The King was present. The Royal Hawaiian Band furnished the music.

The Junior crew of the Honolulu made the smart time of 17:20 over the course Tuesday evening. The prospects are better now than a week ago for the entering of two crews in the coming race.

An old drunk was sobered up last night by falling into the water near the boat steps at the foot of Nuuanu street. He was fished out by an inconsiderate native who rebuked him with another glass of gin.

The Ladies Benevolent Society of Fort Street Church, will hold their regular monthly social this evening in the church parlors. There will be ice cream for sale, the funds thus raised to be used in refitting the church parlors.

Messrs. Henry Davis & Co. on Hotel street will receive by the steamer to day a fresh assortment of all kinds of fruits and vegetables. One of the luxuries imported by this firm will be fresh oysters brought down on ice, both in tins and in the shell. Orders should be sent in early to secure first choice.

Yesterday evening two sailors from the S. Tellie were coming down Nuuanu street trying to hold each other up, when they reached the corner of Nuuanu and Merchant streets they both fell off the high curb and stood upon their heads. After a prolonged discussion about the "bloody" town the brave tars mustered sufficient courage to try it again and were soon zigzagging toward the deep, blue sea.

From the Gazette we learn, that owing to a complaint from the Washington Post Office that large number of letters are constantly being forwarded from this port without going through the regular mails, thereby causing the San Francisco Office extra work, Postmaster Whitney has decided to keep the mails open in Honolulu, hereafter, until fifteen minutes before the departure of the steamer. This will give everybody a chance to mail their letters.

According to the Luso Hawaiian, the formation of a Portuguese band in Honolulu, of which the Press spoke some time ago, is very near to become an accomplished fact. Over twenty members have already given in their names, and they are only waiting to make their start, for the arrival of their future band-master, who was the leader of the Portuguese band in Hilo. It is therefore to be hoped that very soon Honolulu will count one more attractive feature, especially as the new band will be honor bound to follow the excellent example given by the Royal Hawaiian Band.

The late high tides have washed away much of the sand from many of the private beaches this side of Waikiki, leaving the water deep close to the shore and the bottom rocky.

Mr. H. S. Davidson who broke his arm during the ball season has so far recovered as to be out on the street with his arm in a sling. He declares that he has had enough base ball fun for one year.

Last night services were held in the different churches. Rev. George Wallace gave a lecture at St. Andrew's cathedral and the usual services and subject discussions were held at Fort Street and Bethel Churches.

The effect of the dry weather is beginning to tell on the flowers and trees throughout town, the latter are becoming pretty well covered with dust, which is blown in clouds off the streets when the trade winds blow.

Mr. Sam Macey, the hack inspector, was yesterday presented with a new cane by Mr. Sam McKeague in appreciation of his joke-telling ability. It is understood that Sam will allow Sam to carry the stick half the time, as both Sams are joke tellers.

The new Temperance Hotel on Nuuanu street is now receiving the finishing touches and will be ready for use in about two weeks. The Hotel has a cool inviting appearance and has a double verandah around three sides of it. The Hotel is surrounded by large shade trees.

To young boys—a white boy and a native—were caught in Beretania street Tuesday afternoon engaged in decoying chickens out of a resident's yard. As soon as the unsuspecting chickens came out they were immediately caught and put in a sack. When the enterprising boys were found by the owner the sack contained five chickens worth fifty cents apiece.

The Post Obit Club have set apart next Saturday evening for the discussion of the political condition of the country. Member Barber will preside and Member Cathart will read a paper on the Kingdom's finances. Member Goode will discuss the opium traffic. At the close the club will go into a committee of the whole and formulate resolutions of the departure of Member Riddell.

The Luso Hawaiian does not intend apparently to take public things here in a luke-warm manner. In the last number issued, it comes out in no uncertain tone about the deplorable state of public security. Complaining of the numerous robberies of which Portuguese subjects have been victims, all over the islands. The Luso says that the insufficiency of the police gives one a wish to treat them to a drowning as is done to useless cats, and further says that the best remedy for this insufficiency of the police, and the most convincing argument to be given to intending robbers, would be to pepper their backs with a little salt. Bravo, Luso, that's well spoken!

There will be an entertainment given at the Hawaiian Hotel to-night in honor of the Captain and officers of the Satellite. The Royal Hawaiian Band will be in attendance and will play in the Hotel grounds. During the evening an informal dance will take place in the parlors of the Hotel. Both the grounds and the Hotel building will be illuminated. The concert will not only be a delightful affair in itself but will also be a graceful welcome to the passengers who arrive to-day by the M. Riposa. It might as well be suggested here as any place, that the Government ought to take more interest in the arrival of strangers on our shores and so arrange it that the band could play at the Hotel, free of charge as it used to, every time a steamer arrives from San Francisco.

They say: that the financial reports of the Kingdom never show the debts which are owned; that a full financial statement published in the native papers would ruin the present administration; that the present officials are preparing to meet the displeasure of the next Legislature; that some of the boat builders are figuring on a new yacht for a prominent Honolulu man; that there will be a merry time at the Hotel to-night; that a new fashion of swimming is in favor with the dudes at Waikiki; that the new Portuguese Band intends to blow the Royal Band away; that the best way to eat poi is with a stick; that the young man who introduced the fashion intends claiming a royalty, if the natives adopt it; that the present administration is confident of success at the coming elections; and that if the Government gets left one of the bugs in the Foreign Office will con-tester.

Hon. A. S. Cleghorn, who has charge of Thomas' Square and has made it the delightful bit of landscape that it is, has given us the following information concerning the firing of shots there a few nights ago: Mr. Cleghorn says that for some time past some persons have been repeatedly stolen the wheelbarrows used in the square, lifting them over the fence and making away with them while the Chinese attendants were asleep. These malicious persons have also at different times gone through the Square and pulled up plants, allowing them to remain on the ground near the place they were growing. To stop these depredations and stealings Mr. Cleghorn bought a cheap shot-gun and some powder and ordered the Chinaman in charge of the Square to fire blank charges into the air to frighten these suspicious characters at night. Further than this he does not believe any firing has been done at Thomas' Square.
